

Entrance to Captain William Clark Park

William Clark Park was formally dedicated on August 7, 1905 to commemorate the Lewis Clark expedition campsite. For 6 days they camped at Cottonwood Beach while gathering provisions for their journey.